

For State Senator,
6th DISTRICT,
Larkin T. Brasher,
OF CHRISTIAN.
Election Monday, Dec. 21.

Geo. C. Col has been fired out of the Detroit post-office. Sent C. O. D. it was.

The official plurality of Gov. Hill in New York, which has just been declared, is 11,131.

Lord Tennyson is out with a book of new poems which will add to his fame as a great and popular poet.

The Serbian soldiers who cut off their fingers to keep from fighting the enemy have been put to death by order of King Milan.

Sherman since his election as Speaker of the Senate has resigned his position as Chairman of the Republican Senatorial Caucus and Edmunds has been elected in his stead.

Ray Gould has left Wall street. But he wouldn't if he could have taken it along with him. It is not often that this enterprising financier leaves anything. -Chicago Times.

Grant, McClellan, Hendricks, Alfons, Vanderbilt all have died during the last five months. Death is no respecter of greatness and our ranks are being rapidly thinned. Who will be the next?

The Rothschilds estates of England are estimated at one billion dollars, or five times as great a sum as Vanderbilt's. A thousand million dollars! Quite a nice little start in the way of a fortune.

It is rumored that Queen Victoria is to abdicate. When the children of to-day are beginning to pick gray hairs out of their heads the same rumor will come gayly skipping along by cable. The good old lady is not built on the abdicating plan. -Chicago News.

A Roman astronomer announces that the inhabitants of the planet Mars are trying to attract the attention of the people of the earth. They probably will not succeed until they invite us to join them in a punch on the Milky Way. -Philadelphia Press.

"The Republican Senators have too much faith in the virtue and good sense of Ohio," says a John Sherman organ, "to fear the defeat of that individual for the Senate." "Fidelity in the virtue and good sense of Ohio" is the substance of things hoped for the evidence of things not seen. -Courier-Journal.

The President has sent in a full list of his appointments to the Senate. It is announced that the Republicans will refuse to confirm several of the appointments, especially such as were appointed to supersede Union soldiers, though as a rule they will not antagonize the administration.

W. H. Vanderbilt's will has been probated. He leaves $10,000,000 to each of his eight children and $1,000,000 to charitable institutions. $200,000 in railroad bonds is left to Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn. The great bulk of his fortune is in railroad and government bonds and this is not divided but to be held as an undivided estate by trustees named. He remembers a number of distant relatives with annuities of from $1,000 to $3,000. His wife and sons are made executors and trustees to carry out the terms of the will.

The Courier-Journal pays the Times this well-merited compliment: "The publication of the President's message complete in the Louisville Times, within a few hours after it was sent to Congress yesterday, was a feat in journalism never before attempted or performed in this city by an afternoon paper. There are more than 26,000 words in the message yet it appeared in its entirety in that sterling newspaper without delaying its appearance upon the streets beyond the usual hour of publication. As if this were not enough, it followed the first edition of its immense double-number with a second conveying the news of the death of Wm. H. Vanderbilt, thus closing the news account for the day and balancing it to a cent."

A Washington correspondent pays Hon. Polk Laffoon this compliment, in touching up Kentucky's Congressman:

Polk Laffoon is rather heavy set, but is an active man. He has dark piercing eyes and a complexion like a Frenchman. He is quick in his utterance, and quick in catching an idea. He is a lawyer of ability and a man of scholarly habits. When a mere youth he went into the Confederate army, and when the war was over set about becoming the "architect" of his own fortune. He has succeeded, and to-day in deepness of thought, in breadth of grasp, is the peer of any man in the House. He is a student. He has brought the whole force of his intellect to bear upon the great issues of the day, and the speech which he will make upon the Silver Bill will so thoroughly discuss that question that the people will understand it. While his quick, sharp tones and the piercing glance of his eye has made many a witness tremble in the box, his voice softens in friendship and his eye melts with pity. He is a man with a heart as well as a head.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE SERVANS WIN A BATTLE.

Belgrade, Dec. 12.-A telegram from the front states that a long and bloody engagement took place to-day between the Servians and Bulgarians. The town of Veliki Izor was wrested from the possession of two batteries belonging to the Pirot division of the Bulgarian army, who attacked the Servians. Upon finding themselves outmaneuvered the Bulgarians made signs that they wished to surrender. The Servians who were mostly elderly men belonging to the Second Reserve, shouldered in reply: "You have already deluded our children (meaning the youths of the first reserve) in that fashion, but you will not delude us." Thereupon they charged the Bulgarians with the bayonet, scattering them in every direction. The Bulgarians left many dead and wounded on the field.

The Servians claim a brilliant victory. Much enthusiasm is manifested in Belgrade over the success of the Servians.

A SERVIAN ATTACK.

Sofia, Dec. 10.-The Servians to-day attacked the Bulgarian outposts at St. Nicholas, Izor and Krivofo, and were repulsed at all points. No losses were sustained in the attack.

THE UNION RECOGNIZED.

London, Dec. 12.-The Times says: "The Eastern difficulty may be regarded as virtually settled. The Powers have agreed to recognize the Union of the Bulgarians. A demarcation commission has been appointed, which ensures an armistice of a month and will hardly fail to secure peace."

Nothing would gratify us more than to see the Hon. I. A. Spaulding, of Union county, chosen Speaker of the lower House of the Legislature, which meets in less than two weeks. The Henderson Journal of last week contained a strong and well-written endorsement of his claims to the position, aside from the demands of his section for recognition. Mr. Spaulding is the peer of the superior of any other aspirant to the honor, but he will probably be defeated and we know of at least one of his nearest neighbors who will contribute to his defeat. Let Western Kentucky look out for him and "spot" him in the future.

The Republican Senators held a caucus Friday to determine upon a policy to govern them in confirming the President's appointments. Opinions were expressed, and generally assented to, that good men appointed to office because they were Democrats should be confirmed, except in cases where their predecessors were removed upon unfounded charges brought for the purpose of making pretenses for the creation of vacancies. In such cases it was urged that the nominations should be held up to give the removed officials an opportunity for vindication.

The Louisville Times which gets off more good things than any paper in the State is authority for the following bit of wisdom:

"An Ohio lad of sixteen is going to enter college to prepare himself for the profession of journalism. He is about to enter the wrong school. Let him go into some good printing office and work his way up from devil to be devil. Then, if he has the necessary amount of brains, he will stand some show of becoming a journalist, indeed."

Congressman Morrison in nominating Mr. Milburn, the blind preacher, for Chaplain of the House, summed up the person's virtues as follows: "I nominate a man who loves God, hates the devil and always votes the straight Democratic ticket." The Democrats decided that such a man would be a good hand to do their praying and so elected Mr. Milburn.

Miss Minnie Disbuer, of Columbus, Neb., went to sleep with a severe headache Oct. 26, and has not been aroused since that time but once and then only for a few minutes, about a month ago. All medical devices to arouse her have proved unavailing. She frequently weeps in her sleep, which with a faint evidence of breathing, is the only indication of life. She is 21 years old and quite pretty.

The English government has decided to send a new force into the Sudan, in Egypt. There are already about 12,000 or 15,000 English soldiers in Egypt, stationed at Alexandria, Cairo and other points.

The funeral of the late W. H. Vanderbilt took place Friday and the remains were placed in a temporary vault until the mausoleum is finished. A force of detectives will guard the vault until the body is moved, which will be in about six months.

The remains of Riel, the Canadian rebel, have been taken up from their temporary resting place and will have a real burial at St. Boniface, where his father's remains are interred.

Twelve Bulgarian old maids have formed themselves into a band of Amazons and stride their horses like dragons when they go forth to fight the Servians.

Wm. L. Scott, of Pennsylvania, is the richest man in the present House. He is worth $12,000,000, and has made it all himself, though he is now only 45 years old.

A Frenchman has started a new sect in Canada, whose doctrine is that women have no souls, because the Bible nowhere speaks of female angels.

Call on Judge Joe McCarroll.

BY THE BAR.

We, the undersigned members of the Hopkinessville bar, recognizing Judge Joe McCarroll as a lawyer and jurist of ability and experience, as a life-long Democrat and as a gentleman of unquestioned and unquestionable integrity, and believing that if elected he will discharge the duties of the office with credit to himself and county, would respectfully request him to become a candidate for the office of Circuit Judge in this, the 2nd judicial district of Kentucky.

COMMITTEE MEETING.

Larkin T. Brasher Endorsed for State Senator.

The Democratic County Committee met yesterday in the office of the Secretary. Tea members were present, viz: L. A. Sybert, R. W. Henry, S. G. Buckner, C. D. Bell, Austin Peay, P. J. Glass, L. R. Salmon, J. M. Dulin, S. H. Myers and Chas. M. Meacham.

A motion was made and carried to the effect that two-thirds of the votes present be necessary to a nomination and that proxies be not counted.

A motion requiring all candidates whose claims were considered to pledge themselves to abide by the action of the committee was after considerable discussion adopted.

A committee was appointed to draft an address to be signed by all the members of the committee present, recommending the candidate endorsed by the committee.

A motion was made and carried that in balloting the candidate receiving the lowest vote on the third ballot be dropped and one name be dropped on each ballot until only one candidate remained. If that candidate received 7 votes he was to be declared the choice of the committee, otherwise nominations were to be reopened for new men.

The names of L. T. Brasher, John Phelps, Ike Burnett, Jno. W. McPherson, J. D. Clardy and F. M. Pierce were then placed before the committee.

1st. BALLOT.
Brasher, 3; McPherson, 2; Phelps, 2; Burnett, 1; Clardy, 1.

2nd. BALLOT.
Brasher, 2; McPherson, 1; Phelps, 2; Burnett, 2; Clardy, 1; Pierce, 1.

3rd. BALLOT.
Brasher, 3; McPherson, 2; Phelps, 3; Burnett, 2.

A test vote between the two highest men was taken, and Burnett was dropped.

4th. BALLOT.
Brasher, 5; Phelps, 3; McPherson, 2.

5th. BALLOT.
Brasher, 5; Phelps, 5.

6th. BALLOT.
Brasher, 6; Phelps, 4.

7th. BALLOT.
Brasher, 6; Jno. W. Payne, 2; Pierce, 1; Not voting, 1.

At this point a member who had not voted for Mr. Brasher, seeing that his friends were determined to stand by him, arose and announced that he would break the dead-lock on the next ballot by giving him the one vote necessary. This announcement being made, a motion was offered that Mr. Brasher be declared the choice of the committee, which was carried and the meeting adjourned after a stormy session of nearly three hours. Below we give the address of the committee to the Democracy of the district.

To the voters of the 6th Senatorial District of Kentucky:

The candidate for the Senate to fill the vacancy having been conceded to Christian county as a matter of right, the Democratic Committee of said county met in Hopkinessville, Dec. 14th for the purpose of recommending a suitable person for said position. More than a majority of the committee was present and the claims of all parties having been duly considered and voted on, Hon. Larkin T. Brasher was chosen as a fitting man to present to the people of the District.

We can and do therefore present the Hon. Larkin T. Brasher as the choice of the Democracy of this county, to represent it in the Senate of Kentucky, and knowing him to be a good man true to the interest of his State and party, respectfully and earnestly ask for his claims to consideration which they so justly merit.

FOR SEVEN YEARS.

Mr. L. W. Hanks, the subject of the above sketch, with the Evening Chronicle, St. Louis, Mo., in answer to the inquiry of a reporter said: "For seven years I have been suffering with catarrh, and during that time have been treated by six eminent physicians, without success. Some doctors told me I had consumption. For the past two years I have had a continual discharge of mucus dropping in the throat, a cough and pain across my forehead. Added to this was loss of memory, voice, appetite, resting in the ears, and a general feeling of weakness. About six months ago I consulted Dr. Turner. Today I am as well as ever, have gained twenty pounds, and don't detect a trace of my old trouble. Yes, sir, I would be pleased to answer, by letter, any person suffering from that dread disease."

Dr. Turner, M. D., has offices at 810 Washington Ave., St. Louis, Mo., and has, in a private and hospital practice of over thirty years, treated with wonderful success all curable cases. Treatment of diseases and surgery a specialty. NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS. By my original system of consultation, I can treat patients by mail as successfully as in person. Consultation. Patients can consult me by mail on all diseases of the throat, stomach, liver, lungs, heart, nerves, general debility, and all diseases peculiar to the sexes. No extraneous charges. Consultation at office and by mail one dollar. Send one dollar for a FULL CONSULTATION BY MAIL, or receipt of which I will thoroughly investigate your case. If you are suffering from any of the above diseases, write me. No letters answered unless accompanied by 4c. in stamps. Address all letters to Dr. L. W. HANKS, 810 WASHINGTON AVENUE, ST. LOUIS, MO.

The Democratic Committee met in Senatorial hall, Tuesday evening, and the session was a stormy one and Brasher took the cake.

SOCIALITIES.

Rev. Mr. Nourse, of Louisville, is visiting his son Rev. W. L. Nourse.

Mr. G. J. King, of this county, left for Eureka, Fla., Saturday to spend the winter.

Mr. C. G. Layne and wife, of Fairview, returned from a bridal tour to Texas, last Sunday.

Messrs. R. E. Cooper and P. C. Wootton, of Lafayette, were in the city Saturday, on their return from Nashville.

Miss Malie Lindsay, of Cadiz, passed through the city Thursday on her way to Lagrange, Ga., where she will spend the winter.

DIED.

FOARD: At her residence in Lexington, Ky., Thursday Dec. 10th 1885, Mrs. Jane F. Foard, mother of Col. J. F. Foard, formerly of this city. Mrs. Foard was born in Halifax county Va., in 1812 and was consequently 73 years of age. For many years she had lived a consistent member of the Methodist church. Her funeral was preached at the Methodist church, in this city at 10:30 o'clock Friday and the remains interred in the city cemetery.

Mrs. Lulu Wade Roush, wife of Mr. F. P. Roush, died Sunday night, at her residence on Virginia street, between 16th and 17th streets. She had been sick for several weeks. Mrs. Roush was the youngest daughter of Mr. Henderson Wade, and a sister of Mrs. A. W. Pyle and Mrs. A. G. Roush. The funeral will be preached to-day by Rev. Mr. Gill, at 10 o'clock and the remains interred in the city cemetery. The bereaved husband and relatives have our deepest sympathies.

The City Election.

The city election Saturday was very quiet and only a slight vote was polled. Six of the old Councilmen were voted for without opposition. The seventh being ineligible two new men were put forward for his place. The following is a statement of the vote:

R. T. Petree, re-elected	340
F. J. Brownell	351
W. M. Hill	352
J. M. Starling	355
G. O. Thompson	355
E. B. Long	355
D. J. Hooser, new man	281
D. J. Hooser, new man	96

It was seen that Mr. Hooser was a large majority. Mr. Hooser was a candidate for the city council and received the following vote:

Received 212 and 96 for City At-Large	308
Received 212 and 96 for City At-Large	308
Received 212 and 96 for City At-Large	308
Received 212 and 96 for City At-Large	308
Received 212 and 96 for City At-Large	308

The majority of the present Councilmen were voted for without opposition. The seventh being ineligible two new men were put forward for his place. The following is a statement of the vote:

Hon. L. T. Brasher, the Democratic candidate for State Senator, was a member of the last House of Representatives. He was a good working member and in all his actions showed his loyalty to the Democratic party. As far as we can learn his nomination gives general satisfaction and there is but little doubt of his election next Monday. He has no announced opposition.

Prof. Edwards' scientific entertainment at the Opera building have been largely attended during the last several days. He will be here two more days and will give performances at 2 and 7 p. m. It is something novel and entertaining in its nature, and well worth the price of admission. Don't fail to see the headless body and other wonders that appear on the stage.

We publish a rousing call upon Judge Joe McCarroll in this issue to become a candidate for Circuit Judge. It is signed by twelve of the Democratic members of the Hopkinsville bar and by about 150 voters from all parts of the county.

HERE AND THERE.

The meeting at the Baptist church closed Saturday evening.

The most reliable and finest watch repairing in the city, is done at M. D. Kelly's.

The iron fence has been completed on the South side of the Court square.

Rev. J. W. Higham is conducting a protracted meeting at Fairview Methodist church.

Messrs. Thompson and Long received every vote cast in the city election Saturday. They are two of the most popular Councilmen the city has ever had.

The special term of Circuit Court closed Saturday, after a session of twelve days. A great many cases were disposed of on the civil docket.

Union Services were held by all the churches at the Methodist church Sunday evening, in the interest of the Christian County Bible Society.

The street lamps were not lighted again last Thursday night, although the night was as dark as a stack of black cats. We have heard no explanation given by the gas company.

Mr. J. O. Overshiner had a valuable milk cow killed on the railroad last Thursday by freight train No. 113. The animal was valued at $60 and paid for by the railroad company.

Have you seen the magnificent new stock of diamonds, gold and silver watches, clocks, jewelry, spectacles, Holland's gold pens, engagement rings &c., now open at M. D. Kelly's jewelry emporium.

The tobacco barn of Joe Pyle, 4 1/2 miles north of this city, near the poor house, was burned last Monday. It contained 15 acres of tobacco and all of Mr. Pyle's farming implements excepting his wagon. We have not learned whether or not the property was insured.

Mr. G. W. Richardson, a well-known farmer of this county living near Edmondson's Ferry, killed three hogs recently, the combined weight of which was 1,160 pounds. The largest of the three tipped the beam at $30.—Clarksville Chronicle.

A negro man named John Orndorf accidentally shot his adopted daughter, Maria, while handling a pistol last Thursday night. The wound is in the neck and is considered dangerous. We might add that this is not the only instance where persons have been "shot in the neck" since the cold spell set in.

The greatest attraction now in the city is the low prices at which our popular jeweler, M. D. Kelly, is selling his magnificent stock of everything in the jewelry line for the holidays. Don't miss the opportunity to call and examine and be convinced.

Rev. P. T. Hale, the good looking pastor of the Danville Baptist Church, was married on Wednesday, the 9th inst., to Miss Lena Bollinger, of Mayfield, Ky. The ceremony took place at the Baptist Church at Mayfield. Mr. and Mrs. Hale will have the cordial good wishes of hosts of friends in Danville. They will reach Danville next Monday and take rooms at the Clemens House.—Danville Tribune.

Mr. Daniel J. Hooser, the new member of the Board of City Councilmen, is one of the oldest and best known business men in Hopkinsville. He is a member of the firm of Hooser & Overshiner, the oldest firm in the city. He lives on Clay street, between 4th and 5th, in the vicinity of the Public School building. He will, no doubt, make an efficient and progressive Councilman.

We are requested by Mr. J. L. Edmondson, correspondent of the Nashville Union, to say that the account of the sensational duel near this city last Wednesday was not sent as a cannon, but that he was imposed upon by the party who gave him the alleged particulars. He sent the report of a duel, upon the authority of two young men, one of whom claimed to be a newspaper correspondent. He disavows any intention to send "unreliable" or "irresponsible" news and we take pleasure in saying him right before the public.

The Loma Literary Society of Bethel Female College gave a delightful entertainment on Friday evening last. The exercises were introduced with a pretty chorus by the Society. The recitations by Misses Fannie Farleigh, Sallie Rust, Porter Lowry and Edna Shawkins were admirable. The dialogue by Misses Annie Adams and Marie Hurt was very amusing. Miss Nora Dalton in reading "The Bald Headed Man," brought the house down. The news and notes by Miss Ida Burke contained a fine variety of wit, humor and instruction. The music vocal and instrumental was of a high order and elicited loud and repeated applause. Several young ladies in this Society belonging to Mrs. Dagg's music class showed wonderful proficiency in the artistic execution of their pieces. Miss Porter Lowry from Miss Manly's class in German, made a recitation in German which was exceedingly well done.

Advantages of the Indianapolis Convention of the Association.

It is interesting to notice the different degrees of success attained in business or professional life, by men who apparently start with equal chances. Those who fail of "success" in gaining money may be as successful as the millionaires in making themselves useful and their lives happy; yet an observer may learn much from noticing the causes which lead to failure or to success. One characteristic of successful men is close and wide-awake attention to the work in hand, such, for instance, as marked a New York driver on the line of stages which have recently been withdrawn from Broadway.

He had a genius for driving a stage, and was noted for keeping his stage full of passengers, and for taking in more fares than any other driver on the route. His success was not accidental. His eyes were forever on the lookout, both on Broadway and in the side streets, so that he never failed to see a distant nod or a slight gesture. A similar alertness for business is noticeable among the first-class clerks, the boot-blacks and the news-boys of New York. Three carts full of bananas and other fruit may be often seen standing close together by the sidewalk. The man in the middle cart will work every moment—standing up, calling attention to his stock, and alert to greet with any one who comes up with the slightest intention of buying. But the other vendors will be seated and half-dozing, or reading a newspaper, or idly waiting for customers to ask for fruit. Before noon the inevitable result. By night, the middle wagon is empty, while the other vendors wheel home a good part of their stock to keep till the next day, and complain of "bad luck" and "hard times."

Some of the boot-blacks fly about through the crowds like shuttles, eagerly examining every pair of boots, and asking here and there: "Have a shine, sir?" Even the beggars keep a close watch on the stream of copper, and never stay long in a spot where income begins to fall away. This alertness which takes advantage of every opening, is one of the indispensable conditions of success.—Youth's Companion.

Gloves and Handkerchiefs.

Gloves are most expensive items, and yet the outlay for them may be considerably reduced by a little care.

Those who wear silk handkerchiefs round the neck in cold weather will find pale pink the best color, because it will bear washing and always look new and good afterward. The same can hardly be said of any other tint, for though a light blue will sometimes stand soap and water it is but rarely, and white handkerchiefs turn yellow.

Good kid gloves must be sparingly used by the economically-minded, watched by the tips of the fingers so that the first stains, that give way may be repaired and always pulled out when taken out, instead of being turned inside one another and being turned into a little ball. None but the best are worth buying, and light ones will clean once or twice, though it is next to impossible to perform this operation with holes.

The greatest trouble with silk gloves is the tendency of the finger tips to wear rapidly into holes, and the very best way of avoiding this is to put a tiny bit of cotton wool or wadding into the extreme end of each finger. Some people before beginning to wear them tuck a tiny bit of an old glove in, but the stitches, however carefully done, have an unpleasant kick if showing, and the wool is far preferable.

With Sueded gloves the case is quite different; the light-colored ones sell far sooner than the dark ones, and it is advisable to have a pair of boxwood hands of the right size on which to wear and dry them. The mixture for the purpose should be made of white-curd soap, cut up small and dissolved in a little milk, and the dirty ones should be well rubbed and cleaned with a little bit of linseed oil. After being sponged with warm water to remove the dirt, they should be wiped with a towel and left on the towel stretchers until quite dry.—N. Y. Graphic.

Yesterday was ushered in with a high wind and bitter cold, and just enough snow to make obnoxious necessary. Winter has begun in earnest and the indications are that it will be a very severe one.

Mr. C. P. Nolan has bought out the grocery store of Mr. H. I. Davis on 7th street, and will continue the business at the same stand.

Ben T. Perkins, Jr., of Nkto, has announced that he will not be a candidate for Congress next year.

DECADENCE OF THE SANG.

A while away and back today
From woody wilds that northward lay,
I'm puzzled quite and want some light
Upon the dear girl's latest flight.

For Maude and May, who yesterday
Peeked out from beneath a blond array
And held out Pops, whose batch of fat
Are matched in my post-voclet yet;

And Maude, e'en, who smiled serene
In frontpiece of grayish green,
Have cast aside their braided pride,
And show their foreheads high or wide.

Each cork-crowns and "Montague,"
And boudoir no longer use,
Nor "Saratoga," long to Vogue as Facsimiles, real or bogus.

For "pompador," the great furor,
Taken inside and outside by the score,
And in a trice "Lis" and "mobs,"
And irascible descends in price.

For bulging brows without a frown
And all the latest craze allows,
And even all the latest craze allows,
Are coaxed to take a backward stroll.

With no disguise above the eyes,
Where wit appositional lies,
A universe we can plainly see,
As these dear maids have used to be.

Don't swap close clips nor shaven tips,
Nor six night's sleep with poker-chips,
And over all the youthful beau
As these dear maids have used to be.

I pass, alas my best girl by,
Nor note the lightning in her eyes;
I see her, too, I hardly know
With too much intellect in view.

Yet, 'tisn't bad, this latest fad
To which the stars about run mad,
When girls commence to "show their
There's much to pay in consequence.

My blue or jet can never equal
So cruelly—can they, my pet?
Re or did us fair, then took despair,
As underneath a hair of air.

So soon will smile, indolent, while
The fair sports of the eye be
Now takes the road with some such code
As "Haines in a blue" or "not made."

SCOTT COUNTY (KY.) FAIR.

At the annual fair of the Scott County Tobacco Association held at Georgetown, Ky., on Saturday, the 14th inst., the attendance was large, but the fair was very poorly patronized by way of offerings.

Best sample, five pounds, Cutting Leaf—One premium, solid coin silver cup, awarded to Messrs. Goddard & Simpson, of Harrodsburg, Ky.

Best sample, five pounds, Filling Leaf—Solid coin silver cup, 1st premium. Awarded to Goddard & Simpson, of Harrodsburg, Ky.

2nd premium—T. Quisenberry, of Pleasureville, Henry County, Ky.

Best sample, five pounds, White Burley Filler raised in Scott County, Ky., in 1885.

1st premium—Thos. H. Clark of Georgetown, Ky., Little Giant Tobacco Press, valued at $52.00.

2nd premium—Prewitt & Cain of Georgetown, Ky., half ton Tobacco Fertilizer, valued at $20.00.

Best sample, five pounds, White Burley Cutting Leaf raised in Scott County, Ky.

1st premium—James S. Pen, of Georgetown, Ky., cash $35.00.

2nd premium—T. H. Clark, of Georgetown, Ky., half ton Tobacco Fertilizer, valued at $10.00.

3rd premium—George S. Robinson, of Corinth, Ky., solid coin silver cups, valued at $10.00.

The judges appointed were as follows: CINCINNATI—L. N. Walker, M. Malins, E. Withers, Perry Jefferson, Ike Mann, W. H. Whitman, Col. Hedges.

LOUISVILLE—P. Megar, H. Glover, Archie Johnson, W. A. Bridges, George Snider, W. P. Johnson.

Archie Johnson, of Louisville, was the auctioneer. Samples sold at $25.00 per hundred to Kinzie Stone of Georgetown.

All visitors were cordially received and entertained by the Association.

The Louisville Trade are confident they will offer fully 125,000 hogsheads during this year. Up to the 3rd of the present month the offerings had aggregated 130,292 hogsheads.

We were informed by several gentlemen the offerings of 1885 crop will reach something over 2,000 hogsheads before the close of this month.

The warehousemen are prepared and determined to get as large a percentage of the 1885 crop as they have of the 1884 crop, and with three new warehouses now built, and an addition of one in the spring, they will not want for facilities.

THE CHARACTER OF THE 1885 CROP. It seems to be little doubt now that with the exception of Cigar Leaf Tobacco, the 1885 Tobacco crop is an interior one as to quality and general character.

There was too much dry weather and burning to permit of the development of body in the bulk of the crop, and in consequence it is lacking in this most important feature. Much less looking leaf is reported, but much of it when handled is found to be flimsy, and will not cure well.

Good Old Tobacco ought to be a valuable stock—West Tobacco Journal.

LATE OR EARLY TOBACCO SALES. A very thoughtful Tobacco man, with whom we conversed recently, is earnestly supposing, after years of observation, with the belief that late sales pay the farmer better than early sales.

He holds that the Tobacco is not ready for the manufacturer before next summer, and that sales at this season are almost exclusively to speculators, while later sales by farmers are direct to the manufacturer—Stock & Farm December 2nd.

New crop seems to be selling below the expectations of many planters and shippers, and they are holding off waiting for an improvement. Some with whom we conversed said there would have to be considerable of an improvement to induce them to sell, and that there would be a rather short crop next year if prices did not improve—West Tobacco Journal.

The Gift of France.

M. Bartholdi has been very busy since his arrival in this country, with responding to social attentions and affairs pertaining to the erection of the "Statue of Liberty Enlightening the World" on Liberty Island, New York Harbor.

He has had frequent conferences with Gen. Stone, Engineer-in-Chief of the Pedestal of the Statue of Liberty, and has made his final suggestions as to the erection of the statue. It is not probable that the pedestal will be completed for two months yet, and will not be ready to receive the statue till late this winter.

He says the entire work cannot be completed before the close of next summer; that the statue is of a great size, and it must be put up slowly and with the greatest care. He thinks it will take five months to get it securely placed on the pedestal.

His plan is to have the dedication on the 3d of next September, the anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Versailles, which secured peace after the Revolutionary war and guaranteed the recognition of the American Republic.

The New York World popular subscription from the people completes the pedestal. A large amount of money is still required for the erection or putting together of the great statue, which, when completed, will be thirty feet higher than the towers of the great Brooklyn Bridge.

The committee by the sale of the miniature statistics, expect to raise the balance of money required for statue purposes, and on receipt of One Dollar will deliver, at any place in the United States, a handsome souvenir of Bartholdi's great work, or a larger representation twelve inches high, very handsomely finished, at Five Dollars.

For Ten Dollars, the committee will deliver a magnificent work of art, same height as the five dollar size statue, finely chased, pedestal heavily silvered, with plinth stand.

These souvenirs will make a very desirable holiday gift, and the giver will surely be remembered, as his gift will have a prominent place in the home, and will also be doing a patriotic act by adding the committee to complete this great work of art.

Subscribers should address all communications to Richard Butler, Secretary American Committee of the Statue of Liberty, 33 Mercer Street, New York.

Have used Tongaline in facial neuralgia, with happy effect, obtaining relief in a short time. G. A. Williams, M. D., Hardin, Ills.

The Catlettsburg Democrat says: There is a mule in Floyd county, is known to be 51 years old. It is the property of an old lady, Mrs. Honaker, who resides near Laynesville.

The mule has belonged to the family for many, many years, and is still very active and lively. It is a good roadster, and the old lady frequently rides it when business calls her to town, or other points in the neighborhood.

This mule has some many experience. In 1863 a party of Federal troops, under command of Col. S. M. Ferguson, of the 39th Ky. Inf., were attacked by a superior force of Confederates, and put to flight.

In the engagement Col. Ferguson lost his horse, and as the next best, he got on to this mule and made his escape to the house of a friend where the Colonel was stored away in the garret, and the mule in the cellar, until the Confederates left the vicinity.

When the danger was over the mule was honorably discharged and returned to its owner.

THE DAILY CAPITAL, FRANKFORT, KY. Published by John D. Woods, Publisher and Binder of Kentucky.

The Capital will be published daily during the session of the General Assembly. It will be 28 columns in size, and will contain, in full, each issue, the official proceedings of the Senate and the House of Representatives, a transcript of all legislative action, and a complete record of current events.

In short, it will be the best daily paper ever published at the Capital, and in every respect a Representative, as well as an official paper of the commonwealth.

For the purpose of extending our circulation to every part of the State, we make the following liberal offers to subscribers:

$1.00! We will send the Daily Capital to any address during the session of the General Assembly, which generally lasts about 120 days of the year.

$1.50! We will send the Capital to any address for one year, including the Daily edition for $1.50.

This affords every citizen of the State—lawyers, farmers, doctors, professional and business men of every class, county and State officials—an opportunity to secure, at the cost of publication, the official organ of the State, containing the complete transcript of the acts of our legislative bodies, and much other valuable and interesting information.

Address, Geo. V. Tindlett, Editor of THE CAPITAL, office of Public Printer and Printer, Frankfort, Ky.
